

OBJECTIVE Write your story for college coaches. Use the example below as a template, do not copy.

1. Personalize your story and accomplishments in this email
2. Add link to email.
3. Follow up consistently! Be prepared with questions and answers from recruiting manual attached
 - Send personal email to coaches individually
 - include link to recruiting video

Letter Template

Dear Coach _____,

My name is _____ and I am a 18 year old senior golfer at _____ High School (Houston, TX) I am writing to express my interest in playing golf for _____ beginning in the fall of 2016.

Paragraph 1 Tell your story

[Example] - I have split my time between the golf course and the baseball field. Midway through my sophomore year I decide to place all of my focus on golf. This summer I will be playing as many competitive rounds as possible to make up for lost time while playing competitive travel baseball. I have a summer schedule playing with TJGT, Beltway 8 golf tour and Houston Golf Association tournaments.

Paragraph 2 Share accurate, important golf information

My lowest tournament score to date is _____. Most recently I played in the _____. I shot _____ (if good score, talk about improvements you have been making – if bad scores, discuss what you identified and will be working on before your next event. It is important to own your score, and you are always learning)

Paragraph 3 Share academic information

Academically, I am taking a course load to help me prepare of my college career. I am also registered with the NCAA Eligibility Center.

Paragraph 4 Let them know your upcoming schedule and link to recruiting video (if you have one)

Over the course of the next few months, I intend to keep you updated of my tournament results.

I have completed my golf video with coach JJ Wood, here is the link for your reference: _____

I look forward to hearing from you Coach _____. I truly have a serious desire to play college golf and would love to be a part of the _____ program.

Regards,

Your Name
 2018 Grad
 Hometown/ State
 Email
 Phone number